BUSY AT BLOCH'S.

At Bloch Bros.' tobacco works, on the South Side, every effort is being made to get things in shape before the first of July to put out the new size packages of "Mail Pouch" that are provided for in the war revenue law that goes into effect then. The following changes are made. Instead of the two, three and four ounce packages, the new sizes will be one and two-thirds, two and one-hialf and three and one-third ounces. To make these changes a large amount of work is necessary in the way of providing new cartons, paper wrapping and wooder boxes.
Some of the difficulties encountered by the big tobacco manufacturers in como get things in shape before the first

This requires that the wooden cases holding the cartons shall be increased in size, which is another item of extra expense.

"As we cannot send out shipments without complying with the requirements of the law in all these respects, we have been compelled to stop shipments for the present and to devote all our time to getting the new packages, cartons and wooded cases made. As to the extra expense, I do not know whether it will come out of the manufacturer or consumer. The manufacturer already is working on a very close margin and so is the retailer."

THE RAILROADS.

The resignation of F. G. Darlington as superintendent of the Indianapolis tivision of the Pan Handle was accepted Thursday at the meeting of the offclais of the Pennsylvania lines. No successor was appointed, but it is understood that among the well-known railroad men being considered are W. C. Cushing, engineer of maintenance of way on the Pitisburgh division of the Pan Handle, and P. A. Bonebrake, of the Louisville division, formerly chief train master of the Pittsburg division.

BIG GRADING CONTRACT.

Ohio, says the Keyser Tribune, is arranging for a big contract of grading over on the third division between Ter-ra Alta, and Cakland. $25,000 will be ra Alfa and Cakiand. $25,000 will be expended in cutting down the heavy stade between the two places. It is intended to begin the work immediately said, as it is double tracked, no time will be lost by any, of the trains. When completed, "double header" (reights will be run from Grafton to Terra Alia. It is expected that when completed, the time between Parkersburg and Washington will be greatly reduced.

COMMENCEMENT SEASON

oneluded with that of Lincoln's High School-The Pour Graduates All dirls. Address by Editor John R. Clifford-An Excellent Entertainment,

The first annual commencement of NUE WILL BE COLLECTED. Grand Opera House last evening. The BUSY AT BLOCH BROS., MAKING auditorium was comfortably filled with friends of the institution, and the pleasing programme was rendered without side of the stage, while the class colors, The local internal revenue office is red and black, were draped above. A chorus of younger pupils from Lincoln school were seated on the stage and aswhich becomes effective on July 1 and sisted in the rendition of several tuneful choruses, under the leadership of Miss Lucy Robinson.

The graduates were four in number Misses Lulu V. Doffmyer, Mamle F. Misses Lulu V. Doffmyer, Mamle F. Walker, Anna Redman and Pernolla Gardner, the male sex, as usual, not being in it.

After an invocation by Rev. Mr. Goff, "The Lawn Party" was pleasingly sung by the chorus.

The salutaorian, Miss Mamie F. Walker, chose as her subject, "Commencement." She referred to the origin and meaning of the word, and said that conclusion would be more appropriate.

"Spectacles," an oration by Miss Lulu V. Doffmyer, treated in an interesting manner of the various cofored spectacles through which we view the world: of the fanatic enthusiasm of the man of red glasses. The man who wears blue glasses, living in an atmosphere of melancholy, was classed as a cheerful companion—at a wake. The baneful influence of green glasses, the inswiment of jealousy, referred to, and the yellow spectacles of the saffron-hued journals were "praised" for their remarkable (?) exhibitions of enterprise in the present war. Invisible spectacles were the ones to be desired—those which enable one to conquer temptation by living above it. Miss Doffmyer's effort was one of the best of the evening. "What is Hit is History—What is Missed is Mystery," was the theme of Miss Anna Redman. The world smiles on success; if Dewey had falled at Manila his name would have been greeted with indignation. History is a record of energy. Each has his opportunity for history-making. The speaker praised Hobson for his brave act; his name would be immortal in American history. All can make the world shine. It was the imperative duty of the class of 1838 to be true to principle; that done, there was nothing to fear. Mr. John R. Clifford, a prominent colored lawyer of Martinsburg, and grand master of the colored Masons of West Virginia, delivered a timely address. He advised the colored people to read good books and remember them—they aroused the lethargy of our nature. The solution of the colored problem—if there was one—was in their own hands. He deprecated class legislation, claiming that it was an admission of race inferiority. He admonished the young colored men to hustle, to make something of themselves. Mr. Clifford made a very (avorable impression.
